BODA Structure and Operations

Authority

Every lawyer admitted or specially admitted to practice in Texas is subject to the disciplinary and disability jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of Texas which has the inherent power to regulate the practice of law.<sup>1</sup> The Supreme Court of Texas has delegated certain power to the Board of Disciplinary Appeals (“BODA”) to hear and decide disciplinary matters.<sup>2</sup> BODA is a state-wide tribunal with original and appellate jurisdiction to hear six types of attorney discipline and disability matters. In hearing and determining disciplinary proceedings, BODA exercises all the powers of either a trial court or appellate court, respectively.<sup>3</sup> BODA reviews grievance classification screening dismissals by the State Bar Chief Disciplinary Counsel’s office, decides appeals from State Bar district grievance committee evidentiary judgments, has exclusive original jurisdiction to hear compulsory and reciprocal discipline cases, hears petitions to revoke probations imposed by grievance committees, and handles attorney disability cases. BODA also promotes consistency in interpreting the substantive and procedural rules governing disciplinary matters.

The Supreme Court appointed the first members to the Board of Disciplinary Appeals February 12, 1991, pursuant to the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure (“TRDP”).<sup>4</sup> The board became fully operational May 1, 1992.<sup>5</sup> All BODA members are attorneys. Effective September 1, 2003, BODA became part of the revised State Bar Act disciplinary and disability procedure.<sup>6</sup>

BODA deliberations are confidential. As a part of the judicial branch of government, BODA is not subject to the Open Meetings or Open Records Acts.<sup>7</sup> BODA proposes rules of procedure and administration for its own operation to the Supreme Court of Texas for promulgation. BODA revised its internal rules extensively in 2004 to reflect the changes in the State Bar Act and TRDP, provide more flexibility in setting hearings, model the rules governing appellate cases after the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure, refine procedures for disability matters, and clarify certain rules.

All BODA decisions except appeals from classification screening decisions, which are final, are appealable directly to the Supreme Court.

Operations

Members

All BODA members are attorneys appointed by the Supreme Court of Texas. Members serve three-year terms and are eligible to be reappointed for one additional term. A member initially appointed to fulfill an unexpired term is eligible to serve two full terms. Each BODA member participates in an average of two telephone panels a month to review and decide classification appeals and attends hearings en banc in Austin approximately six times a year. BODA members elect their own chair and vice chair annually. All members serve without compensation.

BODA members retiring in 2005-2006 are Chairman S. Jack Balagia, Jr. (Houston), Chairman James S. Frost (Seguin), and Vice Chair Kathy J. Owen (Dallas). Alice A. Brown (Houston) was appointed by the Court in February 2005 to fill Mr. Balagia's unexpired term. BODA officers for the 2006-2007 term are Karen L. Watkins (Austin), Chair, and Paul D. Clote (Houston), Vice Chair.

BODA members represent all geographic areas of the state as well as a wide range of practice areas. Members serving in 2005-2006 include attorneys from Austin (2), Corpus Christi, Dallas (2), Fort Worth, Harlingen, Houston (2), Lubbock, Temple, and Seguin. No more than eight BODA members may be residents of Harris, Dallas, Tarrant, Travis, or Bexar Counties, and no more than two members may be from any single county. Current members' practice concentrations include civil trial, administrative, appellate, business and commercial litigation, corporate securities, corporate in-house counsel, criminal prosecution and defense, family law, personal injury, and mass tort. Members' firms range in size from solo practitioners to multi-state firms. In addition to members in private practice, BODA members include a former District Attorney, corporate counsel, and a federal public defender. Approximately one-half of the members have previous experience in the disciplinary system as grievance committee members.

Office

BODA staff office in the Texas Law Center in Austin. Although BODA is a separate entity from the State Bar, the Bar provides certain administrative support services and hearing facilities. BODA holds its hearings in the court room of the Supreme Court of Texas with the assistance of the office of the Clerk of the Court.

BODA support staff includes the Executive Director and General Counsel who administers and supervises all aspects of BODA operations and advises the Board. The Director also serves as the official custodian of all BODA records. The Deputy Director/Counsel assists the Executive Director in all aspects of the operations, has primary responsibility for the disability docket, and acts as the clerk for District Disability Committees and all appeals from BODA to the Supreme Court. She maintains the BODA Web site. The

---

Executive Director and Deputy Director have a combined 25 years' experience with the Board of Disciplinary Appeals.

The Executive Assistant and Administrative Assistant, who together have over ten years' experience with BODA practice and procedures, handle all case dockets, hearings, file management, and respond to numerous inquiries for information and assistance from the public and attorneys.

Actual funds expended by BODA during fiscal year 2005-2006 totaled $366,551 (94% of budget).

Hearings

BODA considers appeals from grievance screening decisions in two telephone conferences weekly (except those weeks when the Board meets en banc for hearings). These panels consist of three BODA members assigned randomly and either the Executive Director or Deputy Director with a typical docket of 30-35 grievances. A BODA member may refer any classification appeal to the full Board for consideration for any reason. The Board considers those matters at the next scheduled en banc conference. Grievance screening decisions and appeals are confidential.<sup>8</sup>

Other disciplinary cases, including compulsory discipline, reciprocal discipline, revocations of probation, and appeals from evidentiary judgments, are considered by the Board en banc. BODA meets en banc every other month in Austin. The BODA chair may assign any matter to a panel of three members to decide. BODA hearings are open to the public, and the docket for future dates is posted on the www.txboda.org Web site.

Potential disabilities certified to BODA by either the State Bar Chief Disciplinary Counsel's office or by an evidentiary panel of a State Bar grievance committee are first assigned to a specially appointed District Disability Committee to determine whether the attorney named is unable to practice law or otherwise carry out his or her professional responsibilities to clients, courts, the profession, or the public. The District Disability Committee meets in the place of the attorney's residence or practice and reports its findings to BODA.

Caseload

Case Docketing

BODA enters all original matters and appeals the day filed. Appeals from grievance screening decisions are filed directly with BODA by the complainant who submitted the original grievance. BODA requests a copy of the original grievance from the office of the State Bar Chief Disciplinary Counsel where the grievance originated the same day the appeal is received.

Appeals from judgments of evidentiary panels of the State Bar district grievance committees are also filed directly with BODA by the party wishing to appeal the judgment or sanction. These appeals proceed

---

---

similarly to civil appeals generally. The Chief Disciplinary Counsel's office files the clerk's record from the hearing below with the Board, and the appellant is responsible for filing the reporter's record. BODA Internal Procedural Rules Part 4 contain the filing deadlines. The Rules of Appellate Procedure apply except where changed by the BODA Internal Rules or where not applicable. Evidentiary appeals may be decided with or without oral argument. If a party requests argument, the case is set at the first available en banc date following submission of the briefs. Extensions of time may be granted for good cause.

Original petitions for compulsory discipline, reciprocal discipline, or to revoke a probated suspension imposed by a grievance committed are filed with the Board by the State Bar Chief Disciplinary Counsel's office on behalf of the Commission for Lawyer Discipline.<sup>9</sup> The TRDP and BODA Internal Procedural Rule 1.11 govern the required hearing setting and notice for these matters. Cases are set for the next available en banc hearing date following the expiration of any required time deadlines for service or response by the attorney. Continuances may be granted for good cause.

Respondents seeking reinstatement following an indefinite disability suspension file a petition meeting the requirements of TRDP 12.06B directly with BODA. The matter is set for hearing at the first available en banc date following the conclusion of any discovery.

Total Dispositions and Hearings

BODA decides approximately 200 matters monthly, consistently maintaining current dockets for all types of cases. BODA reports case statistics by fiscal year (June 1 to May 31). During FY 2005-2006, 2,450 matters were filed with BODA and 2,483 decided. The Board held 82 telephone conference hearings, met four times en banc in Austin for hearings, and held two additional hearings in Austin before a panel of three members.

Information about the Grievance Process

Opinions

BODA has issued six opinions and memorandum opinions since November 2003 in compulsory cases, evidentiary appeals, and on a motion to void a prior BODA judgment. These are available on the BODA Web site and include:

In re Filippov (BODA Case No. 30611; January 22, 2004)

The crime of possession with intent to distribute a controlled substance is an Intentional Crime for purposes of compulsory discipline under Part VIII of the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure.

<sup>9</sup> The Commission serves as the client of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel and is the actual party to the proceeding.

Partnership in a firm that represents a party adverse to a client of respondent unrelated to the disciplinary proceeding does not constitute an “interest” under Texas Rules of Civil Procedure 18b(1) sufficient to disqualify a BODA member from hearing the disciplinary proceeding.

Weir v. Commission for Lawyer Discipline (BODA Case No. 32082, June 30, 2005)

The fee respondent charged her client was not unconscionable as a matter of law.

Molina v. Commission for Lawyer Discipline (BODA Case No. 35426, March 31, 2006)

The sanction imposed by the evidentiary panel (six-month suspension fully probated) was not an abuse of discretion.

Shelton v. Commission for Lawyer Discipline (BODA Case No. 36059, June 9, 2006)

Affidavit in support of substituted service was insufficient and the default judgment of disbarment therefore void for lack of service.

Sims v. Commission for Lawyer Discipline (BODA Case No. 34229, August 18, 2006)

Default judgment relying on service by certified mail without respondent’s signature on return receipt was void for lack of valid service.

BODA Web site

Information about BODA members, jurisdiction and procedures, the Internal Procedural Rules, the current hearings docket, and recent decisions are available at www.txboda.org. Past public decisions are on the site in searchable format. Copies of all BODA opinions and this report are also available. Attorneys and members of the public may email BODA at info@txboda.org.

Requests for Information

BODA daily receives requests for information concerning the grievance system from attorneys and the public. Except for restrictions discussing pending matters and confidential deliberations, BODA assists the public and the bar by providing information concerning disciplinary procedure and operations. As a tribunal, BODA cannot assist a party to any disciplinary proceeding directly with the underlying complaint.

Professional Development

BODA members and staff regularly participate in local and national seminars, conferences and committees providing information about current ethical issues and rules revisions.

In addition to writing and speaking at ethics seminars, BODA members and staff participate with other local and national disciplinary entities to develop procedures to improve the discipline system and discuss substantive issues. Board member Karen L. Watkins is the 2005-2006 President of the National Council of Lawyer Disciplinary Boards, Inc. (www.ncldb.org), which serves as a national forum for the exchange of information and ideas about the administration, conduct and improvement of formal disciplinary and related

proceedings for lawyers admitted to practice law in one or more jurisdictions of the United States. The NCLDB has over 20 state members and meets annually in conjunction with the American Bar Association mid-year meeting to present a program of substantive and procedural issues. The NCLDB also meets with the National Organization of Bar Counsel and the Association of Professional Responsibility Lawyers to plan and present programs of mutual interest.

BODA encourages coordination of efforts among the Board, State Bar, Commission for Lawyer Discipline, Grievance Oversight Committee, and all related groups to identify and propose improvements to the existing disciplinary system.

The BODA Executive Director serves on the Supreme Court Task Force on the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct and served on the State Bar TDRPC Committee from 2003-2006.

BODA Jurisdiction

Original Jurisdiction

Compulsory Discipline

Since the adoption of the first State Bar Act in 1939, Texas attorneys may be suspended or disbarred based solely on the fact of a criminal conviction for a “felony involving moral turpitude or a misdemeanor involving the theft, embezzlement, or fraudulent appropriation of money or other property.” Prior to 1992,<sup>1</sup> the State Bar initiated the proceeding in district court in the county of the attorney’s residence. Pursuant to TRDP Part VIII, BODA has exclusive original jurisdiction to hear compulsory cases.

The TRDP direct the Chief Disciplinary Counsel of the State Bar to file compulsory discipline charges with BODA on behalf of the Commission for Lawyer Discipline when an attorney has been convicted of an Intentional Crime. “Intentional Crime” includes any “Serious Crime” requiring proof of knowledge or intent as an essential element and any crime involving misapplication of money or other property held as a fiduciary. “Serious Crime” includes barratry, any felony involving moral turpitude (per se)<sup>2</sup>, any misdemeanor involving theft, embezzlement, or fraudulent or reckless misappropriation of money or other property, or any attempt, conspiracy, or solicitation of another to commit any of the foregoing. For purposes of compulsory discipline, an order of deferred adjudication also constitutes a conviction. No statute of limitations exists for compulsory actions.

The definition of “Intentional Crime” excludes any felony requiring only a reckless mens rea. In addition, the Supreme Court of Texas has held that, in the context of attorney discipline, crimes of moral turpitude must involve dishonesty, fraud, deceit, misrepresentation, or deliberate violence, or must reflect adversely on an attorney’s honesty, trustworthiness, or fitness as an attorney.<sup>3</sup> “A lack of fitness is indicated most clearly by a persistent inability to discharge, or unreliability in carrying out, significant obligations.”<sup>4</sup>

BODA hears compulsory cases en banc and sits as a trial court. Cases are routinely set for the next available en banc date at least 30 days after the date the petition is served on the respondent attorney. BODA may continue a compulsory hearing for good cause. However, the fact that the criminal conviction is being appealed is not grounds for delaying the hearing.

Compulsory cases, although based on a criminal conviction, are civil proceedings. Respondents are not entitled as a matter of right to be present at the hearing or to have an attorney appointed to represent them. Compulsory disciplinary proceedings do not allow a jury trial. The average time for BODA to hear and decide a compulsory case from the filing of the petition until judgment is 110 days. The CDC must prove by the greater weight of the credible evidence the conviction, the nature of the offense, the punishment received, and the identity of the respondent. The conviction, which conclusively establishes the attorney’s guilt, may be proved by a certified copy of the judgment of conviction or order of deferred adjudication.

If the criminal conviction for an offense determined to be an Intentional Crime is not fully probated, the Board must disbar the attorney. In any case in which the attorney convicted received a fully probated sentence (either “straight” probation or deferred adjudication), the Board has the discretion either to suspend the attorney for the concurrent term of the criminal probation or to disbar. A respondent eligible for suspension may offer evidence in mitigation to support a plea for suspension.

If a suspended attorney has his criminal probation revoked before completing the term, disbarment is mandatory, and the CDC will so petition BODA. An early termination of probation does not automatically result in a termination of the suspension.

If the criminal conviction is on appeal at the time of the compulsory decision, the Board may nevertheless suspend the attorney pending the disposition of the appeal. By issuing an interlocutory order of suspension, the Board retains jurisdiction to enter a final order when the appeal concludes. The interlocutory order typically also states what the final judgment will be – either suspension or disbarment – in the event that the conviction is affirmed. If, at the conclusion of the appeal the conviction is affirmed, the CDC must file a motion for entry of final judgment to conclude the compulsory case. If the attorney does not dispute the finality of the conviction when the motion for final judgment is filed, the Board may enter that judgment without a hearing.

If the conviction is overturned on appeal, the Board will terminate the suspension when the attorney files a motion containing a certified copy of a mandate or published opinion. The Board cannot, however, reinstate an attorney’s license, which is held by the Clerk of the Supreme Court. The attorney must first comply with all other licensing requirements and satisfy the State Bar membership department that all dues, occupational taxes, and continuing legal education requirements are current before receiving his license and bar card.

Compulsory proceedings are not exclusive. The State Bar may also pursue a grievance proceeding against the attorney under Part II of the TRDP based on the underlying conduct which resulted in the conviction if it constitutes professional misconduct under the TDRPC. The attorney may be disciplined in each proceeding, unless disbarment in one renders the other moot. If the conviction does not involve an Intentional Crime, the State Bar can only pursue discipline, if any, through the standard grievance process providing that the four-year statute of limitations has not expired.

Compulsory decisions are appealable directly to the Supreme Court. The party desiring to appeal must file the notice of appeal with the Clerk of the Supreme Court within 14 days of receiving the BODA judgment. BODA prepares and files the clerk’s record with the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court may decide appeals from BODA compulsory decisions with or without opinion. To date, compulsory appeals are the only disciplinary appeals from BODA on which the Court has issued opinions.

Reciprocal Discipline

BODA has exclusive original jurisdiction pursuant to Part IX of the Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure to hear petitions for reciprocal discipline filed by the State Bar Chief Disciplinary Counsel’s office on behalf of the Commission for Lawyer Discipline. Attorneys licensed in Texas and another jurisdiction are subject to reciprocal discipline in Texas following a disciplinary sanction in the second jurisdiction. Reciprocal hearings are governed by Section 7 of the BODA Internal Procedural Rules.

After the CDC initiates the case by filing a petition including a certified copy of the order or judgment of discipline from the other jurisdiction, BODA issues an Order to Show Cause requiring the respondent attorney to answer within 30 days and show why the imposition of identical discipline in Texas is not warranted. If the attorney fails to answer, BODA may enter judgment imposing discipline identical, to the

extent possible, to that imposed in the second jurisdiction. Reciprocal cases are set for hearing en banc at the first available hearing following the answer date. Continuances may be granted for good cause.

A final judgment that an attorney has committed misconduct in another jurisdiction is conclusive for purposes of reciprocal discipline. To defend a reciprocal action, respondents must prove one of the available defenses under the TRDP by clear and convincing evidence. Defenses are that:

- the procedure followed in the other jurisdiction was so lacking in notice or opportunity to be heard as to constitute a deprivation of due process;
- there was such an infirmity of proof establishing the misconduct in the other jurisdiction as to give rise to the clear conviction the BODA should not accept as final the conclusion on the evidence reached in the other jurisdiction;
- the imposition of identical discipline in Texas would result in grave injustice;
- the misconduct warrants substantially different discipline in this state; or,
- the misconduct in the other jurisdiction does not constitute professional misconduct in Texas.

If the respondent prevails, BODA may enter such order as it deems necessary and appropriate. BODA may impose a sanction as a result of reciprocal discipline regardless of whether the respondent has competed the discipline (suspension, probated or partially-probated suspension) in the other jurisdiction. BODA reciprocal decisions are appealed directly to the Supreme Court of Texas within 14 days of the date that the respondent receives notice of the judgment.

Revocations of Probation

BODA has exclusive original jurisdiction pursuant to Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure 2.23 to hear petitions to revoke probated suspensions imposed by State Bar grievance committees. BODA retains jurisdiction to revoke the probation for the full term of the probated suspension. The Chief Disciplinary Counsel of the State Bar initiates a revocation of probation by filing a Motion to Revoke Probation on behalf of the Commission for Lawyer Discipline with BODA alleging that the respondent attorney has materially violated the terms and/or conditions of the disciplinary judgment.

BODA hears motions to revoke probation en banc at the first available hearing date following service on the respondent. The Rules state that the matter must be heard within 30 days of the date that the respondent is served; however, continuances may be granted for good cause. BODA conducts an evidentiary hearing to determine whether the Chief Disciplinary Counsel has proved that the attorney has committed a material violation of the terms or conditions of probation by a preponderance of the evidence.

If BODA finds that the respondent has materially violated the terms or conditions of probation, BODA must actively suspend the attorney for the full term of the probation as originally assessed, without credit for any portion of the probationary period already served. BODA cannot extend the probation, impose additional terms and conditions, or otherwise amend or modify the original judgment.

BODA decisions in revocation matters are directly appealable to the Supreme Court of Texas within 14 days of the date that the respondent attorney receives notice of the judgment.

Disability Cases and Reinstatements

BODA has exclusive original jurisdiction pursuant to Part XII of The Texas Rules of Disciplinary Procedure to suspend an attorney indefinitely who is suffering from a disability. A disability is any physical, mental, or emotional condition, with or without a substantive rule violation, which results in the attorney's inability to practice law or otherwise carry out his or her professional responsibilities to clients, the courts, the profession, or the public. BODA appoints a committee, the District Disability Committee, whose members are specially trained in disability matters. The District Disability Committee holds an evidentiary hearing to determine whether the attorney is disabled as defined by the TRDP. These hearings are governed by Part VIII of the BODA Internal Procedural Rules. Disability proceedings are confidential except for the final judgment of indefinite suspension.

A disability referral may arise either during the initial investigation of a complaint or during the evidentiary hearing stage. A disability referral suspends the disciplinary process until BODA issues a final judgment concerning the disability. If, during its investigation of a complaint, the CDC reasonably believes that the respondent suffers from a disability, it must seek authority from the Commission for Lawyer Discipline to refer the respondent to BODA for a District Disability Committee hearing. The CDC forwards the complaint and any other relevant documentation to BODA. An evidentiary panel may also find that a respondent is suffering from a disability and forward that finding to BODA. The party asserting that the attorney suffers from a disability bears the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence. Expert testimony is typically received.

At any point in the disability process a respondent attorney who is competent to do so may waive the District Disability Committee hearing and agree to an indefinite suspension. The respondent must be capable of swearing that he understands the consequences of his actions, is competent to waive the hearing, and is competent to agree to the suspension.

When BODA receives a disability referral from either the Chief Disciplinary Counsel or an evidentiary panel, the chairman appoints a District Disability Committee to proceed de novo to determine whether the disability exists at the present time. Members of these committees include an attorney, a medical doctor or mental health care professional holding a doctoral degree, trained in the appropriate area, and one public member with no direct or indirect interest in the practice of law. The BODA deputy director serves as the clerk for the District Disability Committee proceedings, managing all filing deadlines, setting hearings, and handling all motions and requests for appointment of counsel.

Within 20 days of BODA appointing the District Disability Committee, the CDC must file a proposed hearing order and serve it on the respondent. The respondent has 20 days from receipt of the CDC's order to file his own proposed order with BODA. The respondent attorney may request that BODA appoint an attorney to represent him during the disability proceeding.

The District Disability Committee conducts a closed hearing on the record to take evidence on the disability issue. The CDC may request an order directing the respondent attorney to undergo a physical and/or psychiatric exam, or the committee may so order the respondent on its own. The respondent may offer evidence from his own expert.

The District Disability Committee certifies its finding to BODA whether or not the respondent is presently suffering from a disability. If the attorney demonstrates that there is no likelihood of harm in his or her continued practice of law, the committee may recommend a probated disability suspension conditioned on the attorney complying with certain terms and requirements. The committee may develop a monitoring plan for the attorney as a condition of the probation and require periodic reports to the State Bar Chief Disciplinary Counsel's office, who supervises the probation. During a probation, the CDC may request modification of the conditions or move to revoke the probation.

---

Following receipt of the disability committee's finding regarding disability and recommendations, if any, BODA enters a judgment either suspending the attorney indefinitely, placing the attorney on a probated suspension, or – in the event of a finding of no disability – returning the case to continue in the disciplinary process from the point at which it was referred.

BODA has concurrent jurisdiction with state district courts to hear petitions for reinstatement after an indefinite disability suspension. A respondent may petition for reinstatement at any time after the imposition of an indefinite disability suspension. The attorney must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the reasons for the suspension no longer exist and that terminating the suspension will not endanger the public or the profession. BODA holds an evidentiary hearing en banc to determine whether the respondent has met the requirements for terminating the suspension and may require the respondent to undergo an exam by an appropriate health care provider.

The record of all proceedings on disability must be sealed and remain confidential, except as to the respondent. Only the order of indefinite suspension may be made public. BODA disability judgments and reinstatement judgments are appealed directly to the Supreme Court of Texas within 14 days of the date that the respondent receives notice of the judgment.

BODA Jurisdiction

Appellate Jurisdiction

Grievance Screening and Classification Appeals

The office of the State Bar of Texas Chief Disciplinary Counsel (“CDC”) screens every writing received which alleges professional misconduct to determine whether the grievance describes conduct which, if true, would violate the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct. The CDC dismisses writings which they find do not allege misconduct as “inquiries” and classifies those warranting additional investigation as “complaints.” If the CDC dismisses a grievance, the complainant can appeal that decision to BODA.<sup>5</sup>

The CDC informs the complainant that an appeal to BODA is available when it sends notice that the grievance has been dismissed and includes the BODA appeal form with the disposition notice. The complainant signs the form and mails, faxes, or delivers it to BODA within 30 days of receiving the dismissal. BODA enters notices of appeal and transmits the information to the CDC regional offices as received daily. Each regional office then forwards a copy of the original grievance to BODA. Because BODA evaluates only the initial screening decision on appeal, it reviews only the grievance and supporting documentation, if any, as originally filed. BODA cannot consider material submitted after the grievance was screened or independently investigate the allegations of misconduct.

BODA decides an average of over 200 classification appeals monthly by randomly assigning cases to three-member panels who discuss and decide the cases by telephone conference twice weekly with either the Executive Director or the Deputy Director. BODA notifies the parties of the decision by letter the day following the hearing. BODA disposes of appeals within two weeks from receipt of the grievance file from the State Bar. The BODA decision is final.

If BODA affirms a screening decision to dismiss a grievance, the complainant may refile the grievance with the CDC one time. If BODA grants the appeal and reverses the decision to dismiss a grievance (“upgrading” or “classifying” as a complaint), the matter returns to the CDC for additional investigation. The CDC typically asks the attorney to provide a written response to the complaint. If the additional investigation refutes the allegations of misconduct, the matter is set for Summary Disposition before a panel of the appropriate district grievance committee. If the CDC finds just cause to believe that misconduct has occurred after additional investigation, he may attempt to negotiate a sanction with the attorney or proceed to an evidentiary hearing or a trial in district court.

Appeals from Evidentiary Judgments

BODA has appellate jurisdiction to review final judgments issued by an evidentiary panel of a State Bar of Texas district grievance committee. A respondent attorney against whom discipline has been imposed may appeal the finding(s) of professional misconduct, the sanction(s) imposed, or both. The Commission for <sup>5</sup> Prior to January 1, 2004, either the complainant or respondent attorney could appeal the initial classification screening decision to the BODA. TEXAS GOVERNMENT CODE Section 81.073(b) (effective September 1, 2003; “State Bar Act”) eliminated the respondent appeal for grievances filed on or after January 1, 2004.

---

---

Lawyer Discipline of the State Bar of Texas, represented by the Chief Disciplinary Counsel at the evidentiary hearing, may likewise appeal the finding(s), sanction(s), or decision to dismiss.<sup>6</sup>

Appeals to BODA from evidentiary judgments proceed similarly to civil appeals with a notice of appeal, record, briefs, and oral argument. BODA Internal Procedural Rules Section 4 governing evidentiary appeals generally follows the TEXAS RULES OF APPELLATE PROCEDURE where applicable. In addition, the TRAP apply to the extent relevant and except where expressly changed by the Internal Rules. The average time for BODA to decide an evidentiary appeal from the date the notice of appeal is filed is 190 days.

The appellant must file the notice of appeal with BODA within 30 days after the date of judgment, except where a motion for new trial has been filed which extends the time for filing to 90 days. BODA acknowledges the filing of the notice of appeal the same day. The appellant must request, pay for, and file the reporter's record from the evidentiary hearing with BODA within 30 days of the date the notice of appeal is filed. The CDC files the clerk's record within 30 days of the notice of appeal. The appellant's brief is due 30 days after the record, and the appellee's brief is due 30 days thereafter. Parties may request filing extensions for good cause or by agreement with the other side. BODA may strike a brief that does not conform to the requirements set out in the Internal Rules or require a party to rebrief.

If a party fails to timely file the record or brief, BODA issues a show cause order describing the omission and requiring the party to show within 30 days why the appeal should not be dismissed. Failure to respond can result in the appeal being dismissed without further notice or hearing.

If one of the parties requests oral argument, the clerk sets the matter for the next available hearing date following filing of the appellee's brief and a period to brief the case. Granting oral argument is discretionary with BODA but has never been denied. BODA may also require argument on its own motion. Each side is allowed 20 minutes to argue.

BODA routinely considers evidentiary appeals en banc although an evidentiary appeal (like any BODA matter) may be decided by a panel of three members. BODA reviews issues on appeal involving the sufficiency of evidence under the substantial evidence standard. Under this standard, the reviewing court must determine whether there is some reasonable basis in the record for the action taken below. BODA reviews questions of law de novo.

BODA may dismiss the appeal, affirm the decision in whole or in part, modify and affirm as modified, reverse in whole or in part and enter a finding it determines that the panel should have entered, or reverse and remand the cause for further proceedings. For cases filed after January 1, 2004, BODA may remand for a rehearing before a statewide grievance committee composed of six members, four attorneys and two non-attorneys, randomly selected from districts other than the one from which the appeal arose.

BODA may decide evidentiary appeals with or without opinion. BODA decisions are appealed directly to the Supreme Court. The appellant must file the notice of appeal directly with the clerk of the court within 14 days of receiving the BODA decision.

<sup>6</sup> Prior to January 1, 2004, the complainant in the original grievance, although technically not a party to the evidentiary hearing, could also appeal the judgment to BODA. The revisions to the State Bar Act effective September 1, 2003 eliminated complainant appeals for all matters filed after January 1, 2004.
