

BEFORE THE BOARD OF DISCIPLINARY APPEALS APPOINTED BY THE SUPREME COURT OF TEXAS

IN THE MATTER OF JESSICA LYNN SIEGEL State Bar of Texas Card No. 24013509	§ § § §	CAUSE NO. 53875
--	------------------	------------------------

ORDER TERMINATING INTERLOCUTORY SUSPENSION

On July 30, 2014, the Board of Disciplinary Appeals signed its Interlocutory Order of Suspension and Order Denying Continuance suspending Respondent Jessica Lynn Siegel from the practice of law based on her conviction in Case No. 12-03-02754-CR, styled The State of Texas v. Jessica Sekerka Siegel, in the 221st District Court of Montgomery County, Texas. On January 4, 2016, the Ninth Court of Appeals issued its mandate in Siegel v. The State of Texas, Cause No. 09-13-00536-CR, reversing the conviction and rendering a judgment of acquittal. A copy of the mandate is attached to this Order and is incorporated by reference as if set out in full for all purposes.

The Board finds that the appeal of the criminal conviction is final. The Board retains jurisdiction of the matter during an interlocutory suspension to issue a final judgment or order when the appeal of the criminal conviction is final.

On August 30, 2016, the Board issued its Order to Show Cause to the parties why the interlocutory suspension should not be terminated and ordering that any objection to termination be filed within ten (10) days. Neither party has objected to termination of the suspension.

Therefore, the Board ORDERS that the interlocutory suspension imposed July 30, 2014 be, and hereby is, TERMINATED and that this case is DISMISSED with prejudice.

The termination of the interlocutory suspension does not automatically reinstate Respondent's license to practice law. Respondent must still comply with all State Bar of Texas requirements to return her membership status to good standing.

Signed this 19 day of January 2017.
